Okay, let's move on. Find a painting that shows an angel in the sky.

This angel is showing a belt to Saint Thomas. The belt belongs to the woman lying on the bed. Her name is Mary and she has just died. Saint Thomas is on his way to see Mary but he is late. All of the other men in the painting came to see Mary, too.

List all of the colors you see in the painting:

The last painting you have to find shows a city that has many people in it.

Wow, there is so much going on in this painting! Search for the following things and check the box when you have spotted them.

- MAN SLEEPING
- CAGE
- LION WITH WINGS
- DOG

Keep in mind

to complete this mission you will have to look very closely at the art and observe even the smallest details.

Remember... Good art agents don't leave fingerprints because the natural oils on your fingers can stain and damage the surfaces. Please help us preserve the works of art by not touching them!

CONGRATULATIONS!

Walk around the museum to see if you can find a painting that has many books in it. Go find it!

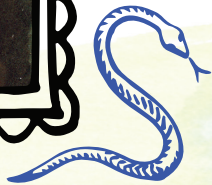

Oh my, someone has just thrown all of these books on the table. What a mess! The artist who painted this picture is called John F. Peto. He really liked books. What's your favorite book?

The next painting you have to find shows two women who are sisters. One of them is holding a cup with a snake.

Have you spotted the knight on a horse in the background? He is called the Red Cross Knight. He is on his way to meet the two sisters.

What do you think happens in the painting ten minutes later? Write down your thoughts:

Let's find the next painting which shows a man on a horse riding up a hill on a sunny day.

Circle the words that best describe this picture

- dark      sad      light
- colorful      happy      bright

In art, a painting of a person is called a portrait. Can you spot another portrait of a man dressed in black and white? This man is giving you the thumbs up.

Ruff

Good job, you found him! Look at the white thing around his neck. It looks a little bit like a scarf but it is called a ruff. That's what people liked to wear 400 years ago. If this man were alive today, what would he be wearing? Draw his outfit here:
